

Updates to American FactFinder

March 2015

American Factfinder is now available at factfinder.census.gov

- During the transition from the previous version of American FactFinder that began in 2011, this site has used the web address factfinder2.census.gov. We have completed the transition, and have changed the web address for American FactFinder to factfinder.census.gov. The old factfinder2 URL, as well as any links and bookmarks that were created using factfinder2 will continue to work, but any new links into American FactFinder should be created using factfinder.census.gov.

- Popular table links are now available from the American FactFinder Main Page.

Sorting Search Results

- Click the column headers in the search results grid to sort your search results. Click once to sort in ascending order. Clicking again will sort the results in descending order. To restore the search results to the default sort order, click the “Reset Sort” button.

The screenshot shows a search results page with a blue header bar. The header contains the text "Search Results: 1-25 of 10,244 tables and other products match 'Your Selections'" and "per page: 25". Below the header is a search refinement area with a "Refine your search results:" label, input fields for "topic or table name" and "state, county or place (optional)", a "GO" button, and radio buttons for "topics", "race/ancestry", "industries", and "occupations". Below the refinement area is a toolbar with "Selected:" followed by icons for "View", "Download", "Compare", "Clear All", and a "Reset Sort" button (highlighted with a red box). To the right of the toolbar are navigation arrows and page numbers "1 2 3 4 5". Below the toolbar are two dropdown menus: "Show results from: All available years" and "All available programs". The main content is a table with the following columns: "ID", "Table, File or Document Title", "Dataset", and "About". The "ID" column header is highlighted with a red box. Other Search Updates and Improvements

We have made several changes in the way search results are ranked in Advanced Search.

- Occurrence of certain keywords in a text search and selected product filters will make certain tables “super relevant”, and those tables are placed at the top of the search results.
- Past versions of American FactFinder prioritized certain table types (Data Profiles, Detailed Tables, etc.) in the search results. For example, Data Profiles were ranked higher than Subject Tables. For this release, we have modified the table type weighting to make search results more relevant to your query.
- When using table identifiers in text search, American FactFinder will now try to match variations of the table ID. For example, if you search for “DP1”, results for “DP-1” and “DP01” will also display.

Load Search and Save Search

- Use “Save Search” from the “Your Selections” box in Advanced Search to save your search criteria to a file on your local drive. This option does not save the actual search results, but saves the search criteria contained in “Your Selections” used for the current search.
- To retrieve a saved search, use the “Load Search” button from the “Your Selections” box in Advanced Search, or use the “Load Search/Query” button from the American FactFinder Main Page.

Although the American Community Survey (ACS) produces population, demographic and housing unit estimates, it is the Census Bureau's Population Estimates Program that produces and disseminates the official estimates of the population for the nation, states, counties, cities and towns and estimates of housing units for states and counties.
